Terms of Membership

A committee membership term is two years; members may serve consecutive terms. Applications are received annually and any unsuccessful applicant may re-apply the following year. All committee members must attend an orientation with Park Place HED prior to their first committee meeting. Each committee/board member must attend 66% of all meetings during a calendar year to maintain membership and retain voting privileges.

All committee members acknowledge that they represent the neighborhood, and should act responsibly and courteously at all meetings. If the chairperson of the committee or Park Place HED staff believes a committee member is not acting responsibly or in a courteous manner, they may report the issue to Park Place HED's Board of Directors which will determine the appropriate steps.
